STOCK MAN HAS LEFT THE CITY

Ulysses G. Beaver Will Probably Never Return to Rushville, so Wife Declares.

DISAPPEARED LAST FALL

Has Been Back Once to Attend Fair —Court Docket Notation Plays Role.

MAY PARTIALLY RECOVER

Mrs. Mary E. Davis' Condition Somewhat Improved.

The attending physician and children of Mrs. Mary E. Davis, who fell down the stairs at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Anderson, Sunday night, sustaining serious injuries, express hope for her partial recovery although it is thought she will never fully recover. Mrs. Davis rested nicely last night and her condition is somewhat improved.

SECOND SALE TO BE BETTER THAN FIRST

Promoters of Combination Auction to be Held Saturday, Receive Large Stock Consignments.

GET A CAR LOAD OF JERSEYS

There is a significant notation on the civil docket in the Rush circuit court today, which would lead the casual observer to believe that Ulysses G. Beaver, a stock buyer, who is well known all over the county, left Rushville for good. The notation is in a damage suit in which Mr. Beaver is the plaintiff and states that the defendant has filed a motion to require the plaintiff to file a cost bond on account of being a non-resident. That leads to inquiries which caused Mrs. Beaver to divulge the fact that her husband was now probably in Canada and that he had left Rushville probably for good.

Mrs. Beaver, while at her home in East Fourth street this afternoon said that her husband had been away ever since last August when it was first rumored that he had disappeared and had been back here once since that time. She admitted that she did not know whether or not he would ever be back. Mrs. Beaver says that she saw her husband last Sunday in Hamilton, and that he would give her no satisfaction then.

Mrs. Beaver said that Mr. Beaver had been back in this city but once since he left last August and that was to attend the county fair. He was back here for one day of the event and left immediately after that. She declared that she did not know where her husband had been in the intervening weeks nor is she certain where he will be in the weeks to come. It seems to be generally understood that he never will be back.

It was generally known last summer that the stockman had left the city, but it was generally believed that he was merely away on business. When he was not seen in local business circles for several weeks, local men wondered. Inquiry lead to a rumor that Mr. Beaver had sold several head of cattle and had disappeared with the money, but that proved to be false. The farmer, who it was said had been swindled, denied anything of the sort ever took place. The story of his disappearance was not given much credence when Mrs. Beaver was consulted and said that he was merely out West on business and would be home shortly.

But Mr. Beaver failed to "come back" and the knowing ones shook their heads. They said that he would never return to Rushville, but lo, he did, according to Mrs. Beaver, who says that he was here fair week. But she believes that he will never be back in Rushville.

The notation on the court docket led to the investigation of the whereabouts of the local stockman. It was in the case of U. G. Beaver against the C. H. & D. railway company for damages, demanding two hundred dollars. The defendant had evidently learned that Mr. Beaver had shaken the dust of Rushville from his feet for other climes and for that reason filed the non-resident motion.

LIBERTY GETS NEW FACTORY

Awakens From Its Long Sleep And Shows Signs of Great Industrial Improvement.

MAY BE TAKEN AS AN EXAMPLE

Margin Between First Cost and Selling Price Provides Fund—Liberty Won Very Easily.

The little city of Liberty awoke from its long sleep a short time ago, made a lot sale and with the means acquired has secured a good factory which is a substantial increase to its business and will tend to enhance its population. The lot sale plan is the best known for raising factory funds because it enlists the assistance of a greater number of people who put their money into lots with the assurance of getting their money back and probably more, in time.

Conditions, of course, should be right to insure the greatest success. The "raw" land must be bought at such a price that when lots are sold at a reasonable figure, the difference between the cost and the selling price will leave a good margin for the fund. Lot prices fixed too high would be a hinderance. The scheme is in a sense speculative. Men who buy must be able to see a probable return of their money or more or they will hesitate to take hold. This would be the case if lots were held at the normal selling price or nearly so.

On the other hand, if lots are offered much lower than the normal selling price there will be a rush for them as many will buy with the certainty of a raise in future.

Perhaps not a fourth of the buyers where lot sales have been made wanted the lots for themselves to build on. But their investments being small they are later enabled to dispose of them at a modest profit to men able to make partial or whole payments and who want them to build on.

SHELBYVILLE GAINS IN ITS POPULATION

Unofficial Report Shows 9,500 Inhabitants: A gain of Over 30 Per Cent in Ten Years.

AND STILL ARE NOT SATISFIED

A number of business men, mostly members of the Citizens' Industrial club, have made preliminary arrangements for re-taking the census of Shelbyville. A telegram was sent to E. Dana Durand, director of the census at Washington, asking him to withhold the report of Shelbyville's population. If, at the completion of the census the figures are not what they ought to be, 10,000, word will be sent the census department to announce the figures of the government's enumerators. A large force of men will be selected and each man given one block in this city. The work will be completed in day.

An unofficial return made by the census bureau shows that Shelbyville has 9,500 inhabitants, which is a gain of over thirty per cent in the last ten years. But even at that they are not satisfied and want a recount.

BELIEVE THIEF WAS IN RALEIGH

New Castle Police Notified That Man Who Stole Horse and Buggy Was in Rush.

LOCAL OFFICERS ARE WARNED

Alleged Robber Was Detected With Woman in Raleigh and Later Seen in Spiceland.

The police department and Sheriff K. K. Kirk and his deputies are engaged in a hunt for an alleged horse thief, who hired a horse and buggy from the livery stable of Ed Peed on Raee street Saturday afternoon and is still missing with both the animal and the buggy, says the New Castle Courier.

Late Sunday night a man and a rig answering the description was seen to drive out of Raleigh, Rush county, and start north. Mr. Peed thought that the alleged thief was enroute to New Castle, but as he had not shown up yesterday morning, Mr. Peed concluded that he had taken another direction. He and Sheriff Kirk went to Cambridge City yesterday in an endeavor to locate the stolen rig.

With the alleged thief at Raleigh was a well known New Castle woman of a shady reputation. She was not with the man when the horse and buggy was taken out of the livery stable.

Under a clever ruse the supposed thief obtained the outfit at the livery barn. He wore a hunting coat and carried a single barrel shot gun and bore every appearance of one of the many hunters who left the city Saturday. That the sportsman-like costume was only a disguise was evidenced at Spiceland, when the man and woman and the Peed rig were seen and he did not wear hunting clothes.

The stolen outfit consisted of a sorrel mare, 15½ hands high and about 12 years of age. The horse was rather thin and had white feet. The buggy had red running gears and a black bed. The right shaft was cracked.

No word had been received from Mr. Peed or Sheriff Kirk and it is supposed that they are still on the trail of the thief. They are traveling in an automobile.

MAKE VISIT TO ORPHANS' HOME

Legislative Committee, Appointed by Governor, Will Recommend Improvements For Institution.

TO VISIT EPILEPTIC VILLAGE

The legislative committee, composed of Representative Joe Craven of Madison, Representative Miles Furnas of Winchester and Senator J. J. Netterville of Anderson, joint-senator from Henry and Madison counties, were in Knightstown yesterday visiting the Indiana Soldier's and Sailors' Orphans' Home, south of there. The committee was carrying out the duties imposed upon it by Governor Marshall, to ascertain the needs of the institution with a view of making the proper recommendations to the legislature when it meets in January.

Today the committee inspected the Eastern Indiana hospital for the insane at Richmond, and Wednesday it will go to New Castle to visit the Indiana epileptic village.

FELL IN FRONT OF CAR

Drunken Man Warned in Time to Escape Death.

A drunken man terrorized the residents of East Third street about six o'clock last evening and a police call was considered for a time when the man was finally persuaded to leave. He ran through yards and badly frightened several women in the neighborhood. The man, whose name was not learned, fell on the traction line near the car barns in front of an approaching car, but was warned in time for him to crawl to one side and escape being run over.

WILL LOCATE ST. PAUL MILL

C. J. Bickhart Buys Old Carmichael Site and Will Erect Structure Here at Once.

STARTS FOUNDATION TODAY

St. Paul Man is Experienced Miller and Will Bring New Faces to Rushville.

All arrangements have been completed for the location of the St. Paul flour mill, owned by C. J. Bickhart, on the old Carmichael mill site at the foot of South Morgan street on the banks of the mill race. The ground was surveyed and measured for the foundation today and work will be started at building it at once.

Mr. Bickhart promises to put up an up-to-date and modern mill with all present-day equipments. The foundation work will be started at once and will be made of concrete. The owner has expressed the opinion that the building will be almost completed in three weeks. After that time it will require several days to move the machinery and install it in the local building.

It is said that the Bickhart mill is one that will add much to Rushville's worth as an industrial center. Local men who know the owner, say that he is a practical miller and will conduct his business in a thoroughly competent manner. The site which he has procured is an ideal one, largely due to the fact that a mill has stood there for years up until the time when the old structure burned down.

It will be remembered that Mr. Bickhart presented a proposition to the Rushville Retail Merchants' Association at a meeting a few weeks ago, asking for a donation of one thousand dollars to move his mill here. The Association did not deem the mill worth that much money and turned the proposition down on the theory that he employed only a very few men.

There seems to be no doubt but that the mill will assist Rushville. Mr. Bickhart says that he will bring many of his St. Paul customers to Rushville to strike a bargain at his mill. He will no doubt attract many people to Rushville from that neighborhood who have not traded here previously.

ATTEMPTS TO TAKE HER LIFE IS RUMOR

Was Reported That Prominent Young Woman Took Laudanum With Suicidal Intent.

DOCTOR DENIES KNOWLEDGE

Rumors were thick this afternoon that a prominent young woman had taken laudanum with suicidal intent last night. It was said that she was carried to a certain doctor's office to receive treatment. This doctor when seen denied all knowledge of such a case. Rumors were so thick that another man was found who saw her carried into the office and later saw a man carry a pot of coffee to the office, which was used in helping revive the young woman. From all reports she took an overdose of the poison and will probably recover.

YOU SAVE MONEY READING ADVERTISEMENTS

A store can afford to handle the best goods at the lowest prices that does the most business.

You can not limit a store by its size or location for the amount of business it will do in a year.

The store which can afford to serve customers to the best advantage is the one that can turn over the goods more frequently and sell the most goods in a year.

The goods would remain on the shelves a long time if the merchant did not advertise continually and tell the people what he has for sale.

The goods become old before they are sold.

Therefore the store at which to trade is the store that advertises

This is true from the standpoint of variety and style, also from the standpoint of economy, for the merchant who advertises does a larger amount of business every year than the merchant who does not advertise and therefore can serve you to a better advantage.

The merchant who tells the public what he has for sale and why it is good is the one to trade with.

THE SCHENKS

Woman Under Indictment, Her Husband and Their Children.

FIVE SPECIAL PLEAS

Will Be Entered by the Attorneys for
Mrs. Schenk.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk, wife of the millionaire pork packer, John O. Schenk, whom she is accused of attempting to poison, was taken into court closely guarded by deputy sheriffs, to plead to the indictment found against her by the special grand jury.

Mrs. Schenk, attired in the latest style and wearing an abundance of jewelry, appeared unconcerned, and nodded and smiled to a number of friends who were present. She was not asked to plead to the indictment, her attorneys saying they would file five special pleas. Prosecuting Attorney Handlan gave notice that if the indictment is sustained he would ask that the trial be listed for Dec. 1. Mrs. Schenk was returned to the county jail.

WARREN'S SENTENCE HAS BEEN CONFIRMED

Editor of Appeal to Reason Must Go to Pen.

St. Paul, Nov. 22.—F. D. Warren of Girard, Kan., editor of the paper, Appeal to Reason, must serve a term of six months in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., and pay a fine of $1,000 imposed by a jury in the United States court in Kansas. The sentence of that court has just been affirmed by an order of the United States circuit court of appeals.

Warren was accused of sending through the United States mails envelopes, on the outside of which was printed: "$1,000 reward will be paid to any person who kidnaps ex-Governor Taylor and returns him to the Kentucky authorities."

The indictment charged that the words were scurrilous, defamatory and threatening in character and intended to reflect injuriously on the character of William S. Taylor, a former governor of Kentucky.

The opinion of Judge Hook held that congress had almost unlimited power to prescribe postal regulations; that whether the words were true or false, the outside of the envelope was no place for them.

HASN'T A CINCH

Champ Clark Will Have Opposition in Race For Speakership.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Congressman James Hay of Virginia and Congressman Sulzer of New York state cannot understand why Champ Clark of Missouri should have a walkover in securing the speakership of congress. Both men declare they can fill the shoes of Uncle Joe Cannon to the entire satisfaction of the house. So sure are these two men that they have the ability that they have declared themselves ready to make the race with Clark.

Two Indians were killed and two wounded in a fight between Indians and a band of cattle men on the Crow reservation in Montana.

REVOLUTIONISTS FORGING AHEAD

Fires of Revolt Break Out In Mexico.

MANY CITIES ARE AFFECTED

At Several Points Hard Fighting Has Been Reported With Much Loss of Life—Government Conscribing In
All Its Frontier Towns and Rushing
Troops to Border Points—Revolutionists Are Recruiting Indians.

Mexico, Nov. 22.—Revolutionists in large numbers attacked and captured Gomez Palacio, an important town in Torreon. During the fight the government troops were driven out, but later they were reinforced and under Colonel Ismael Zuniga, they attacked the town in turn, driving out the insurgents and chasing them into the mountains. Many were killed and wounded on both sides.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 22.—The Mexican government is conscripting in all its frontier towns and rushing troops to points along the border where there is grave danger of outbreaks. Hard fighting with revolutionists has been reported at several points and there is much excitement along the national boundary.

General Villar has received reports that there was a hot fight at Camargo, a small town 10 miles below Laredo on the Rio Grande. Before the report was complete wires were cut. Reports also reached him that fighting was inevitable at Las Vacas and that bands of men were gathering in many other smaller towns. Before he could get orders to those places the federal wires went "dead." For the first time in the fifteen years of operation the leased wires of the Associated Press from Laredo to Monterrey and Mexico City have been commandeered by the Mexican government on the plea of military need.

REYES RUMORS

Exiled Leader of Mexican Malcontents
Is Expected Back From Europe.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 22.—Trouble was reported at Orizaba in the state of Vera Cruz, Mexico, and Guerrero and Hernandez, state of Coahuila, but no confirmation came of the reported battle and great slaughter at Zacatecas, although persistent rumors of such a fight continue to be received.

At Guerrero and Hernandez the troops have suppressed the rioting, and at Orizaba the soldiers arrived in time to prevent bloodshed, although dissatisfied workmen in the mills at that place stoned the mills, broke many windows and attempted to set fire to several manufacturing plants before subdued.

Mexican officials still seem able to take care of trouble that may develop, but a report from Mexico City states that President Diaz and his cabinet are considering calling 10,000 more soldiers to the colors. The arms so far captured in Mexico total over 6,000 and the rounds of ammunition total over 50,000. Arms of all kinds have been absolutely prohibited from entering Mexico, and prospectors and miners are made to leave their arms at the border.

The report is persistent along the border that General Bernardo Reyes, who was made to resign as governor of Nuevo Leon because his friends supported him for vice president, is coming back from Europe, where he was sent on a "military mission" soon after he was forced out of office, and the revolutionists have faith that he will lead them. If he does, a large part of the army can be expected to follow him. Miguel Gardena, former governor of Coahuila, also forced out of office because he supported Reyes, is said to be ready to join Reyes if he takes up a campaign against Diaz.

Francisco I. Madero is reported back in Coahuila, and it is said that he was leader of the battle at Guerrero. Madero's son has arrived here from Coahuila, and Mrs. Madero is expected today. The report is that Madero means to begin active fighting as soon as he gets his family out of Mexico.

All American garrisons along the border in Texas and Arizona are holding themselves in readiness to preserve order in case any raids are attempted along the border.

Revolutionists Enlisting Indians.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 22.—A report has reached here from Cananea that the revolutionists are enlisting the hostile Yaqui Indians for service against the government. It is said that 1,000 Yaqui warriors will take the field if actual war breaks out.

Crippen Must Hang.

London, Nov. 22.—Dr. H. H. Crippen's petition for a reprieve has been denied, the home secretary announcing that he declined to interfere with the sentence of the court. Crippen will be executed on the morning of Nov. 23 for the murder of his wife Belle Elmore, the music hall singer.

Fire, which for a time threatened to sweep the business center of Harrisburg, Pa., destroyed three business blocks on Market square, entailing a loss of $150,000.

LORD LANSDOWNE

Opposition Leader Suggested a
Way to Avert Impending Crisis.

RELIEF PROPOSED BY OPPOSITION LEADER

Lord Lansdowne Says He Sees a Way Out.

London, Nov. 22.—In the house of lords last evening the Earl of Crewe, government leader, in the second chamber, in moving the second reading of the parliament or lords veto bill, expressed the opinion that one of the reasons why the relations of the two houses had reached the present condition of perpetual conflict might be traced to the general decline and final abandonment of the old-time practice of conferences between the house of lords and house of commons. The revival of this practice, he said, was the very essence of the government's proposals.

Lord Lansdowne, the opposition leader, in reply referred to the attitude of the government in refusing the bill to be amended. If an amendment were allowed, Lord Lansdowne said, a considerable number of peers would favor the second reading of the bill.

He moved that the debate be adjourned until Wednesday, when he said he proposed to submit resolutions dealing with the manner in which the deadlocks between the two houses could be settled.

These resolutions, he said, provide in case of differences on other than money bills that the lords shall abandon their rights to amend or reject on condition that provision is made against tacking on any amendment and that any question which may arise shall be referred to a joint committee of both houses, the speaker of the commons as chairman having the casting of the deciding vote. Lord Lansdowne's motion to adjourn the debate was carried.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made the hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by Hargrove & Mullin.

THEY ARE IN BAD WITH UNCLE SAM

Burr Brothers Charged With Defrauding Customers.

THROUGH USE OF THE MAILED

Raid by Postal Inspectors, Headed by General Hitchcock Himself, on a Notorious New York Get-Rich-Quick Concern, Led to the Arrest of the Promoters and a Scatterment of the Agitated Customers.

The following are the ruling prices of the Rushville market, corrected to date—November 22, 1910:

POULTRY

Spring Chickens, per pound.....	8c
Hens on foot, per pound.....	8c
Turkeys, per pound.....	.15c
Ducks.....	8c
Geese, per pound.....	.7c
PRODUCE
Eggs, per dozen.....	.34c
Butter, country, per pound.....	.18c

These happenings and others of a like nature which are coming, are brought about because the department has adopted a new policy in relation to the innumerable swindlers who use the mails to sell stocks in worthless prospects by false representations. General Hitchcock figures that these concerns have stolen $100,000,000 in the last five years. The old policy was to issue fraud orders against them. The new policy is to start the head men for Atlanta, where there is a big prison. So far seventy-eight of the concerns, he says, have been tackled in different parts of the country. There are lots left on the program.

Mr. Hitchcock has been on the job in New York since last Friday conferring with Inspector Dickson of the local office and Chief Inspector Sharp of the postoffice department, who has also run up from Washington to be in at what the department hopes will be the death of Burr Brothers so far as the United States mails are concerned. When the inspectors dropped in at Burr Brothers' office they found the place crowded with customers and men and women clerks. Conversing with the customers the inspectors found Eugene H. Burr, secretary and treasurer of the company, and F. H. Tobey, vice president. But Shelton C. Burr was not around and the postmen inquired for him. "At this time of day he's most likely in Mrs. Farnsworth's Christian Science rooms in the Mohawk building," said the other Burr brother.

So the sleuths went to Mrs. Farnsworth's, where they found Shelton Burr reading a Christian Science pamphlet. He was quite put out at the interruption, and when told that he was under arrest, and announced that some enemy must have sicked the inspectors on an honest man. He excused himself to Mrs. Farnsworth and was taken to police headquarters, where he was charged with using the mails to defraud, and turned over to the postoffice inspectors. Meanwhile the inspectors, dividing their forces, had gone back to the Flatiron building. This time they asked no questions, but informed the roomful of people that some of them at least were "wanted" and that everybody had best keep very quiet while the process of picking out the sheep from the shears was going on.

One of the inspectors said later that the respectability of most of the firm's clients was quite evident by their perturbation at being caught in a raid just as they were dreaming of 50 per cent profits. They left in a hurry when, after arresting E. H. Burr and F. H. Tobey and telling the clerks that they would have to make trips to the federal building, the detectives told the clients they might go. There were twenty girls and twelve men employed in the place. A force of postoffice inspectors took charge of the deserted offices, and the two Burr brothers and F. H. Tobey were taken before Commissioner Shields and held in $10,000 bail each. The prisoners could not raise the money and went to the Tombs. They will have a hearing next Monday. The arrest of L. Wesley Preston of Portland, Ore., and H. R. Tobey, who is somewhere in Michigan, both members of Burr Brothers, was ordered.

The Burr Brothers case, according to officers, involves stock sales of between $19,000,000 and $50,000,000 face value, and Chief Inspector Dickson has been busy for some time gathering evidence against the company and its promoters relative to the sale of stock in more than a dozen companies.

The officers later stopped at the office of the Continental Wireless Telephone and Telegraph company on Pine street, which is also the home of the Colling Wireless company, where they found Charles L. Vaughan. Charged with using the mails in a scheme to defraud, Vaughan was taken before Commissioner Shields and held in $10,000 bail. He could not raise it and joined Burr Brothers in the Tombs.

The war department has sent instructions to Brigadier General Ralph W. Hoyt, commanding the department of Texas, to hold his troops in readiness for service in enforcing the neutrality laws.

GENERAL SHAKE UP IS PROMISED

Gary In For An Overhauling of Recent Doings.

GRAND JURY HAS BIG JOB AHEAD

Nearly Every Person of Prominence in the Steel Town Has Been Called on to Testify Before the Inquisitorial Body With a View to Getting at the Straight of Several Things Which Have Occurred There Lately.

Gary, Ind., Nov. 22.—With Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock on the job in person, the postoffice department sleuths got busy and gathered in the members of Burr Bros., the notorious Flatiron building concern, whose untrammeled use of the mails in distributing get-rich-quick literature has been commented on for several years. The government also caught one member of the Continental Wireless Telephone and Telegraph company, and would have reunited most of that happy family had its members been found.

These happenings and others of a like nature which are coming, are brought about because the department has adopted a new policy in relation to the innumerable swindlers who use the mails to sell stocks in worthless prospects by false representations. General Hitchcock figures that these concerns have stolen $100,000,000 in the last five years. The old policy was to issue fraud orders against them. The new policy is to start the head men for Atlanta, where there is a big prison. So far seventy-eight of the concerns, he says, have been tackled in different parts of the country. There are lots left on the program.

Mr. Hitchcock has been on the job in New York since last Friday conferring with Inspector Dickson of the local office and Chief Inspector Sharp of the postoffice department, who has also run up from Washington to be in at what the department hopes will be the death of Burr Brothers so far as the United States mails are concerned.

When the inspectors dropped in at

Burr Brothers' office they found the place crowded with customers and men and women clerks. Conversing with the customers the inspectors found Eugene H. Burr, secretary and treasurer of the company, and F. H. Tobey, vice president. But Shelton C. Burr was not around and the postmen inquired for him. "At this time of day he's most likely in Mrs. Farnsworth's Christian Science rooms in the Mohawk building," said the other Burr brother.

So the sleuths went to Mrs. Farnsworth's, where they found Shelton Burr reading a Christian Science pamphlet. He was quite put out at the interruption, and when told that he was under arrest, and announced that some enemy must have sicked the inspectors on an honest man. He excused himself to Mrs. Farnsworth and was taken to police headquarters, where he was charged with using the mails to defraud, and turned over to the postoffice inspectors. Meanwhile the inspectors, dividing their forces, had gone back to the Flatiron building. This time they asked no questions, but informed the roomful of people that some of them at least were "wanted" and that everybody had best keep very quiet while the process of picking out the sheep from the shears was going on.

The short session of Congress won't do much. It will take all the time to figure out what it will cost to run Uncle Sam's boarding house one more year, and hold a lengthy autopsy on the remains of Nov. 8.

The following from the Muncie Press is true—every word of it:

More than one-third of the State's increase in population during the last ten years, as shown by the census figures announced this week, has gone to making the capital city bigger in the number of the humans within its borders. Concurrent with its growth in population has come an increase in the number of criminals

Raise Coreless Apples

David Barb, a justice of the peace at Clifford, Bartholomew county, has some apples that have no cores. Neither have they seeds, and the tree that bears them makes no display in the gentle spring time telling the world at large that it is going to have a crop a little later on.

The Barb apples are grown on a tree that never blooms. The fruit resembles the ordinary apple tree save that there is no core and a seed is a rarity. The apples are not supposed to have seeds at all, but now and then a seed slips in. A few apples from the tree this year are now being shown to his friends by the owner of the freak tree.

SAME NUMBER TO REMAIN

Probable That Congress Will Increase or Decrease Representatives.

The increase in population in Indiana during the last ten years will not entitle the State to an additional member of the house of representatives. It is barely possible that in making the new apportionment, congress might fix a ratio representation that would reduce the number of congressmen from the State from thirteen to twelve, but the probability is that the number of members from the State will stand as it is.

Makes Thanksgiving Invitation

The Rev. E. C. Meyers has issued the following invitation to attend the union Thanksgiving service at the First Baptist church Thursday morning:

Union Thanksgiving service will be held Thursday morning, November 24, at 10:30 o'clock, at the First Baptist church. Rev. A. W. Jamieison, pastor of the U. P. church is to preach the sermon. All the people are invited to attend this service, with the spirit of praise and gratitude to God for his watchful care over us, and his many blessings to us. It is certainly fitting that we turn aside from our business and our pleasures for a little while on the day of national Thanksgiving, and remember that every good and perfect gift cometh down from God, while we express our sense of gratitude to the giver. Come with us for this hour of worship.

BURK CONSTRUCTION COMPANY OF NEW CASTLE COMPLETES LARGEST CONCRETE STRUCTURE IN STATE.

IS LOCATED IN THIS COUNTY

The largest concrete bridge in southern and central Indiana outside of Marion county has been completed at Malcom's Ford south of here by the Burk Construction Co. of New Castle. The structure costs Rush county $12,000, and the Rose City concern was the only one that had the nerve to even figure on the bridge, which is located several miles from a railroad and in a wilderness noted for hilly ground and almost impassable roads.

Thirteen carloads of Portland cement were used in the construction of this bridge, which from end to end, is 253 feet long. The forms for the job required $60,000 feet of two-inch pine lumber, all of which is still intact and will not be removed until the time specified.

Irb George, a member of the company, superintended the construction work and he and his men have been camped near the bridge site for the last four months.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace theater will have a complete change of program tonight.

The Vaudet has an Imp film for tonight entitled "Once Upon a Time."

The picture tells a beautiful story and is strong in dramatic action. It shows what might have been, and what really did happen. The situations throughout the picture are pleasing. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Star Grand offers two Essanay comedy pictures tonight. The first is entitled "Hank and Lank." They get wise to a new scheme. This is an unusually funny picture with a laugh in every foot. The second picture is entitled "Papa's First Outing." Father gets a month's vacation and goes to the seashore. Mother and the children learn the resort is famous for flirts and send a female detective to watch him. The lady sleuth can obtain no evidence and tries to make some. Father falls a victim to the maiden's charms and is confronted with the evidence of his perfidy when he gets home. The finish is a scream.

Of unusual interest to theatergoers is the engagement of Henry B. Harris' production of James Forbes' comedy, "The Traveling Salesman," which will be seen at the Auditorium, Connersville, tonight.

Mr. Forbes is the author also of "The Chorus Lady" and "The Commuters" and, like these pieces, "The Traveling Salesman" was written solely for laughing purposes.

You will laugh until your sides ache at the antics of Bob Blake, salesman for a cloak and suit house, who is stranded in Grand Crossing, Ind., on a Christmas Day and has to spend the night in a cheerless hotel, where even the casual liquid refreshment is denied him. He meets Beth Elliott and Ted Watts, a necktie salesman.

Robert Edeson comes to English's opera house, Indianapolis, on Wednesday, November 23, in his own play "Where the Trail Divides," which was written by the star from Will Lillibridge's novel. In the new play, Mr. Edeson will again essay the role of an American Indiana as in "Strongheart." The leading character is How Landor, a full blooded Sioux of modern dress and habit who is confronted with the struggle of his life when after marrying a white girl he finds that race prejudice has resulted in all of her white friends shunning her. To make matters worse he finds that she is in love with a white man. With this complication as his basis, Mr. Edeson has evolved a splendid play, one which gives promise of being his greatest stellar vehicle.

The above letter received at the Daily Republican office last evening is only a reminder that it is high time to open the popular feature which has been customary, that of receiving letters to Santa Claus from the little folks of Rush county and Rushville. In years past the children have been zealous in their efforts to reach Santa Claus through the columns of the Daily Republican and many of them have been successful. The letters of the little ones are always read with interest and this year the same custom will be followed. The epistles will be published as soon as possible after they are received. All letters should be addressed to the Santa Claus Editor of the Daily Republican.

NOVELIZED BY
LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE FROM THE PLAY
OF THE SAME TITLE BY WINCHELL SMITH

COPYRIGHT, 1910, BY WINCHELL SMITH AND LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

"No, not long; just a minute or two." Sam was already dragging the affair out from under the window box. "You see?"

He went on to expound its virtues with all the fond enthusiasm of a father showing off his firstborn and wound up with a demonstration of the illuminating appliance. I'm afraid, though, he got little encouragement from Mr. Burnham. He considered the machine with a dispassionate air, it's true, and admitted its practical advantages, but wasn't at all disposed to take a roseate view of its future.

"Yes," he grudged when Sam put a match to the jet, "that's certainly a very good light."

"All right, ain't it?" chimed Roland, enthusiastic.

"Oh, it may amount to something. It's hard to tell. Of course you know, sir," he continued, addressing Graham directly, "you've got competition to overcome."

Sam's old fingers trembled to his chin. "No-o," he said, "I didn't know that. I've got the patent!"

"Of course that's something. But the Consolidated Petroleum crowd has another machine, slightly different, which does the same work and, I should say, does it better."

"Is—is that so?" quavered Sam.

"My patent!"

"Now, see here, Mr. Graham," Burnham argued, "we're practical men, both of us!"

"No, I shouldn't say that about myself," Sam interrupted. "Now, you, sir, I can see you're a man who understands such things. But I—"

"Nevertheless you must know that a patent isn't everything. You said a moment ago a man had to have money to make anything out of his inventions."

"Did I?" Sam interjected, surprised.

"Certainly you did. And dead right you are. A patent's all very well, but supposing you're up against a powerful competitor like the Consolidated Petroleum company. They've got a patent too. Granted, it may be an infringement of yours even. What can you do against them?"

"Why, if it's an infringement?"

"Sue, of course. But do you suppose they're going to lie down just because

Two Minute Cure For Cold in Head or Chest.

It is Curing Thousands Daily, and Saves Time and Money.

Get a bowl three quarters full of boiling water, and a towel.

Pour into the water a tea-spoonful of HYOMEI (pronounced High-o me).

Put your head over the bowl and cover both head and bowl with towel.

Breathe the vapor that arises for two minutes, and presto! your head is as clear as a bell, and the tightness in the chest is gone.

Nothing like it to break up a heavy cold, cure sore throat or drive away a cough. It's a pleasant cure. You'll feel at once its soothing, healing and beneficial effects as it passes over the inflamed and irritated membrane. 50 cents a bottle, at druggists everywhere. Ask Johnson's Drug Store extra bottle Hyomei Inhalant.

an unknown and penniless inventor sees them? Bless you, no! They'll fight to the last ditch. They'll engage the best legal talent in the country. You'll have to carry the case to the supreme court of the United States if you want a winning decision. And that's going to cost you thousands—hundreds of thousands—a million!"

"Never mind. A thousand's enough," said Sam gently. "I see what you mean, sir. It's just another case where I've got no chance."

"Oh, I wouldn't put it as strong as that!"

"But I have no money."

"Still, you never can tell. I'll think it over if I get time."

"Why, that's kind of you, sir; very kind."

It was at this point that Roland rose to the occasion like the noble ass he is. Roland never could see more than an inch beyond the end of his nose.

"Say, Mr. Burnham," he faltered, "don't you think you could help Sam to?"

"I think," said Mr. Burnham, with additional business of looking at his watch, "I'd like to send that wire I spoke of."

"Yes, Roland," Sam agreed meekly, "you mustn't keep your friend from his business. I'm glad you looked in, sir. You'll call again, I hope."

"Thank you," said Burnham, moving toward the door.

It was too much for Roland's sense of opportunity. He rolled in Burnham's wake sullenly reluctant. "Say, Mr. Burnham," he exploded as they got to the door, "if you'll just offer Sam five—"

"That will do!" Roland collapsed as if punctured. Burnham turned to Graham with a wave of his hand. "I'm leaving on the afternoon train, but if I get time I may drop in again and talk things over with you. There might be something in that thrashing machine you mentioned."

"I'll be glad to show you anything I've got here."

"All right. Good day. I'll see you again perhaps."

This cavalier snub was lost on Sam, an essential of whose serene soul is the quality of humility. He followed them to the door as grateful as a lost dog for a stray pat instead of a kick. "Good day, sir. Good day, Roland," he spied their parting cheerfully.

But it was a broken man who shut the door behind them and turned back, fingering his gray chin.

Perhaps Mr. Burnham was right. Only I was kind of hopin'— Now, Mr. Lockwood over there?"

He shook himself to throw off the spell of depression.

"Well, well! He's kind, very kind. With this young man in here and everything gettin' fixed up and new stock comin' in—I'm sure Mr. Lockwood'll see it the right way for us. He's kind, very kind."

Thus it was that he presently called up the stairs in a very cheerful voice, "Betty, are you pretty near through up there?"

The girl's weary voice came down to him without accent, "Yes, father, almost."

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER

The Only True Hair Restorer, Tonic and Rejuvenator

ALMOST A MIRACLE

My hair was as white as snow when I commenced using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Restorer. One bottle restored my hair to its natural dark brown color. As I am now 70 years old, I consider the result most remarkable. It is an agreeable and refreshing hair dressing, keeping the hair soft and glossy, without being in the least greasy or sticky.

WM. WESTLAKE,

210 West Main Street, Rochester, N. Y.

Why hesitate when WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER is daily producing just such results?

After years of study and analysis of the hair, we have been able to produce an ideal Hair Tonic and Restorer, which contains an actual constituent of hair, combined with ingredients of recognized merit for treatment of hair and scalp diseases. It makes and keeps the scalp clean and healthy, gives life, strength and lustre to the hair, and restores faded and gray hair to natural color.

No matter how long and thick your hair is, WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER will make it longer and thicker. It will remove every trace of dandruff in a few days, stop falling in one week, and start a new growth in from one to three months.

These are facts that have been proven in scores of cases. WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER is guaranteed to do all that it is claimed to do or the price will be refunded.

DEADLY POKER GAME

Loser Charged With Murdering the Winner and All His Family.

Maryville, Mo., Nov. 22.—As a result of a poker game in which Oda Hubbell won all the money, $200, Hubbell and his wife and two small children were murdered in their home two miles southeast of Barnard, this county, and their home and bodies burned in an effort to hide the crime, by Hez Rasco, a young neighbor, who lost the money, according to the police. Officers captured the young man, who denied he had killed the Hubbells, and attempted to prove an alibi. But bloodhounds took the scent at the Hubbell home and followed it direct to Rasco's room, five miles from the Hubbells', and put their noses on Rasco's bloody clothing found there.

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and sever shoving pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendations." Sold by F. B. Johnson & Co.

Rev. Clyde S. Black is improving now quite rapidly. He will soon be able to preach again.

Mrs. Katie Mapes and son Maurice visited Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stevens of near Laurel, her parents, last Sabbath day.

Miss Grace McDaniel of Indianapolis with her gentleman friend called on Mrs. Pyle one evening last week.

Miss Diecia Trobaugh has resumed her duties again as primary teacher here.

There are many suspicious actions in this vicinity here of late. There should be some one looking for such conduct. That old saying "murder will out" will come true some of these days. There is men and women in this town and vicinity who know of conduct that could be easily made case out of.

Is it lawful to have slot machines running in a public place of business? Or shall we put up with such actions? The town board should request the gentleman to close up their machines.

One morning as is customary Mr. Isaac Baker donned his rubber boots and ditched until 10:20 when he requested one of his partners to assist him to get his boots off in a hurry. It was discovered that a mouse had been in his boot all morning. The mouse was captured while attempting to escape his lifelong imprisonment and speedily despatched.

How to Slaughter Turkeys

It's Flourless Bread Now

Turkeys are sometimes sent to market with their plumage on, but they should not be. A properly prepared turkey should be slaughtered after the old formula—as old as the Indians—and set down as follows by the late Thomas Hazzard, the well-known Rhode Island turkey expert, who was known as "Shepherd Tom" for many years:

"The turkey should be shut up and kept without food for eighteen hours and then suspend the sacred creature from a pike above carefully by a stout cord or string tied around both legs and, holding the head downward, reverently, but quickly cut asunder the jugular vein and just as soon as the breath leaves pluck off the feathers before the body gets cold. This done, remove the crop and entrails without loss of time, restoring the liver and gizzard when the latter has been cleansed of its gravely contents and its inside skin. Then tie a string around both wings and both legs and hang it up in a cool, dry place for two or three days."

Rush County Bar Association Adopts Resolutions, Highly Praising Will M. Sparks.

WHO IS NOW AN ATTORNEY

Article in Laudatory Terms Points to Judge's Term of Impartiality and Justice.

At a meeting of the Rush County Bar Association yesterday was read the following resolutions, prepared as a tribute to the work of Will M. Sparks, the out-going judge:

The term of Will M. Sparks as judge of the circuit court of Rush county has just ended and the members of the Bar Association of this circuit desire to express their appreciation of his official services.

Judge Sparks was elected to preside over this court a little over six years ago. He was then only thirty-one years of age—one of the youngest men ever elected in Indiana for so important a position, but the expectations of his warmest friends have been fully realized.

It has been said that "impartiality is the life of justice as justice is of government," and that "justice without wisdom is impossible."

Ever courageous, always industrious, with rare ability and unfailing courtesy, Judge Sparks has administered justice in this court in consonance with the highest ideals and he honestly merits the hearty commendation of the members of this bar, and the people of this community.

This testimony of his ability, integrity, courtesy and impartiality which have characterized the administration of Judge Sparks is by the Rush County Bar Association ordered spread upon the order book of the Rush circuit court, and a copy thereof delivered to Judge Sparks.

The above resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote of the members of the Bar Association present. Several attorneys made short talks, complimenting Judge Sparks on his work. The ex-judge replied with a short talk in which he expressed his greatest appreciation for the honor which had been done him.

SPECIAL SERMONS ATTRACT CROWDS

The Rev. J. W. Turner Will Deliver Another One of His Sunday Night Talks.

COMMUNION NEXT SUNDAY

The series of special sermons that are being delivered at the St. Paul M. E. church by the pastor, the Rev. J. W. Turner, are proving to be quite an inspiration and are attracting large audiences at the Sunday night service.

The volume of thought, intensity of spiritual feeling and the masterful oratory injected into these sermons have been the means of the church taking on a renewed revival spirit. During the past few weeks several additions have been made to the church.

The choir is under the efficient leadership of T. A. Craig and is always prepared with a musical treat at each service.

Next Sunday morning the regular communion service will be observed. At night the pastor will deliver the next of this series of sermons on the subject, "A Great Promise."

Nothing Too Good

For the People of Rush-
ville and Rush County

After being closed down for three weeks remodeling our mill, we are again running under full steam, and are making "CLARK'S PURITY FLOUR" better than ever before, so you know it must be very fine, as it always has been the best on the market. Others have FLOUR that they sell under the brand of PURITY, but it will not stand the test with "CLARK'S PURITY"
